INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

1. The petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten and signed and dated by the petitioner, under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of an important fact may lead to prosecution for perjury. Answer all questions in the proper space on the form.
2. Additional pages are not allowed except in answer to questions 11 and 20. Do not cite legal authorities. Any additional arguments or facts you want to present must be in a separate memorandum. The petition, including attachments, may not exceed 20 pages.
3. Receipt of the $5.00 filing fee or a grant of permission to proceed in forma pauperis must occur before the court will consider your petition.
4. If you do not have the necessary filing fee, you may ask permission to proceed in forma pauperis. To proceed in forma pauperis, (1) you must sign the declaration provided with this petition to show that you cannot prepay the fees and costs, and (2) if you are confined in TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certified In Forma Pauperis Data Sheet form from the institution in which you are confined. If you are in an institution other than TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certificate completed by an authorized officer at your institution certifying the amount of money you have on deposit at that institution. If you have access or have had access to enough funds to pay the filing fee, then you must pay the filing fee.

5. Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single petition. A separate petition must be filed to challenge a judgment entered by a different state court.
6. Include all of your grounds for relief and all of the facts that support each ground for relief in this petition.
7. Mail the completed petition and one copy to the U. S. District Clerk. The "Venue List" in your unit law library lists all of the federal courts in Texas, their divisions, and the addresses for the clerk's offices. The proper court will be the federal court in the division and district in which you were convicted (for example, a Dallas County conviction is in the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division) or where you are now in custody (for example, the Huntsville units are in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division).
8. Failure to notify the court of your change of address could result in the dismissal of your case.

20. For this petition, state every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting them.

CAUTION: To proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your available state-court remedies on each ground on which you request action by the federal court. Also, if you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

- A. GROUND ONE: Ineffective Assistance of Appellate Counsel; Sixth Amendment
Violation

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Appointed appellate counsel provided ineffective assistance by: a) not filing a motion for new trial; b) not obtaining a complete record, and;
c) not pursuing plausible alternatives. See: Memorandum in Support at pages 5 thru 10.

- B. GROUND TWO: Ineffective Assistance of Trial Counsel; Sixth Amendment
Violation

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Trial counsel provided ineffective assistance by: a) not filing a motion for new trial; b) not filing a motion to suppress Jennifer Reynolds's testimony; c) failing to properly investigate the case; d) failing to seat an unbiased jury; e) failing to present an expert witness; f) failing to object.

C. GROUND THREE: Due Process and Equal Protection Violations; Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Reynolds trial was Constitutionally insufficient because four of the State's witnesses perjured themselves.

D. GROUND FOUR: Due Process and Equal Protection Violations; Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Reynolds trial was Constitutionally insufficient because: a) the trial court denied his bond reduction request; b) the trial court erred by not suppressing evidence; c) suppressed evidence was introduced; d) a State's witness manipulated evidence.

21. Relief sought in this petition: Remand back to the state habeas court for further fact-finding by way of affidavits from trial and appellate counsel; and/or order an out-of-time direct appeal; and/or order an out-of-time motion for new trial; and/or order a new trial on the merits.

22. Have you previously filed a federal habeas petition attacking the same conviction, state revocation or disciplinary proceeding that you are attacking in this petition? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If your answer is "Yes," give the date on which each petition was filed and the federal court in which it was filed. Also state whether the petition was (a) dismissed without prejudice, (b) dismissed with prejudice, or (c) denied.

N/A

If you previously filed a federal petition attacking the same conviction and such petition was denied or dismissed with prejudice, did you receive permission from the Fifth Circuit to file a second petition, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(3) and (4)? ☐ Yes ☐ No N/A

23. Are any of the grounds listed in question 20 above presented for the first time in this petition?
☐ Yes ☒ No

If your answer is "Yes," state briefly what grounds are presented for the first time and give your reasons for not presenting them to any other court, either state or federal.

N/A

24. Do you have any petition or appeal now pending (filed and not yet decided) in any court, either state or federal, for the judgment you are challenging? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," identify each type of proceeding that is pending (i.e., direct appeal, art. 11.07 application, or federal habeas petition), the court in which each proceeding is pending, and the date each proceeding was filed. N/A

25. Give the name and address, if you know, of each attorney who represented you in the following stages of the judgment you are challenging:

- (a) At preliminary hearing: Bill Price
- (b) At arraignment and plea: William Conrad; SBOT #24060914
- (c) At trial: William Conrad
- (d) At sentencing: William Conrad
- (e) On appeal: Damara Watkins; SBOT #00787740
- (f) In any post-conviction proceeding: Pro Se

Pro Se

Timeliness of Petition:

26. If your judgment of conviction, parole revocation or disciplinary proceeding became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.¹

An application for writ of habeas corpus was pending in the trial court and the Court of Criminal Appeals from April 19, 2017 thru August 23, 2017; tolling the time pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2244 (d)(2).

¹ The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA"), as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d), provides in part that:

- (1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of -
 - (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
 - (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;
 - (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
 - (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.
- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.
